

The Future Direction for National Clinical Audit in Scotland

Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow

Thursday January 10th 2008

Registration and Coffee	09.30
Welcome and Introduction Sir Graham Teasdale, Chairman NHS QIS	10.00
National Clinical Audit Project Presentations: detailing	10.15
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- The purpose of the audit- How the audit has engaged the clinical community in changing practice- What improvements to patient care can be demonstrated- Its future
Scottish Audit of Surgical Mortality Dr Nick Pace, Chairman SASM	10.15
Scottish Hip Fracture Audit Dr Damien Reid, Chairman SHFA	10.30
Scottish Arthroplasty Project Mr Ivan Brenkel, Chairman SAP	10.45
Scottish Intensive Care Society Audit Group Dr Brian Cook, Chairman SICCSAG	11.00
The Future Direction of SCAQAG and National Clinical Audit Dr Derek MacLean, Chairman, Scottish Clinical Audit Quality Assurance Group	11.15
Facilitated Discussion Dr Bill Mutch, Medical Director, NHS Tayside.	11.40
Lunch	12.30
Breakout sessions	13.15
Coffee	14.30
Keynote Speech Dr Aileen Keel, Deputy Chief Medical Officer	14:45
Finish David Steel, Chief Executive NHS QIS	15.00