

Podiatry Practice Development Network

Shared Space

- ◆ Do you want to share podiatry practice development across Scotland?
- ◆ Are you aware of innovative practice?
- ◆ Do you want to generate discussion?

If you answered 'yes' to any of the above you are ready to join the discussion & debate at the Podiatry Practice Development Network Shared Space.

The Practice Development Network – Podiatry have established a shared space on the NHS Scotland e-library to enable all levels of practitioners to have the opportunity to share practice across Scotland, identify innovative practice and share protocols. A list of training/ study days will also be provided on the site. If you are interested why not join today!

How to get involved

Access the shared space by visiting www.elib.scot.nhs.uk and log on by using your ATHENS username & password. Click here to download the guide to using the shared space.
